CANCELLATION

NO REFUND is possible after registration is complete with payment.

As soon as we receive your registration, the nuns at Druk Amitabha Mountain will start purchasing and preparing items required for the retreat. Registration is also not refundable should you discontinue the retreat at any one point.

SPECIAL NOTES

1. Recitation of 10,000 Vajra Guru Mantra is a commitment for each registrant. The more you can recite, the greater the benefit you can accumulate. Submit your mantra count at the beginning of the teaching retreat. A nun will be going around getting the count from you.
2. All meals are vegetarian. We discourage all retreat participants to bring disposable items, as this will pollute the environment.
3. Non-plastic carry bag to bring back Ganachakra offerings.
4. Water bottle to refill drinking water.
5. Further details will be available on the designated website: www.drukpa.com
6. All pilgrims participating in this teaching retreat are expected to strictly adhere to the etiquettes of those in solitary retreat. There will be a disciplinary team that will govern the situation at their best ability.
7. Should there be misbehavior or offensive actions not adhering to the etiquettes, retreat participants will be requested to leave the group immediately so that others can continue their retreat without further delay.
8. Simultaneous English translation will be provided.
